Jack Johnson or Nobody is the Way Champion Will Enter Ring.

New York, March II.—James J. Jeffries said today that Al Kaufman, who last night challenged him to fight for the heavyweight championship, had no chance of getting a fight with him, nor had "any other white man."

After declaring that he did not know whether he could get into condition again whether he could get into condition again to meet Jack Johnson, Jeffries said:

"If Johnson had been a white man I never would have thought of fighting again. I would have stayed in retirement for the rest of my life.
"How can I tell whether or not I will fight Johnson?" he asked. "How do I know whether I can get back into condition again? Wait until I get to working for a while and then I may bebut I don't want to talk fight how. But I am feeling fine and taking off weight rapidly." As to Kaufman's challenge, Jeffries said:

"Kaufman has not got a chance in the world to fight me. Neither has any other white man. I did not come east to fight and I could not fight here if I wanted to. The laws won't permit it. Kaufman will have to find someone else. I am not here to fight.

FISH AND GAME BILL PASSES BOTH HOUSES

The much-talked-of fish and game bill passed the house yesterday by a vote of to 9. The bill has now passed both 23 to 9. The bill has now passed both houses as presented by a convention of sportsmen, with a few minor changes, which, while they may not meet with the approval of the sportsmen, are not of much importance. One of these is the allowing of shooting from sink boxes in Weber county. This amendment was fought, but was pushed through. The bill was also amended to allow the shooting of rabbits without a license. The game wardens are all against this as it Weber county. This amendment was fought, but was pushed through. The bill was also amended to allow the shooting of rabbits without a license. The game wardens are all against this, as it gives persons the chance to say they are after rabbits when caught hunting without a license.
